

Total Points 10	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Does Not Yet Meet Expectations
Advocacy Letter: Letter advocates for infants, toddlers, and families to State leader or organization about an issue or problem. NAEYC Standard 5	3 Letter strongly advocates for infants, toddlers, and their families to a state leader or organization. Issues are well defined and documented with supporting research.	2-1 Letter advocates for infants, toddlers, and their families to a state leader or organization. Advocacy issues or problems are defined and documented.	0 Letter is vague and unclear. Issues are not defined or documented.
Advocacy Goals: Three advocacy goals are well defined and presented. NAEYC Standard 5	2 Three advocacy goals are presented and documented with background research and references.	1 Three advocacy goals are presented with some background information.	0 Advocacy goals are either not presented or are vague and undocumented.
Knowledge Base: Advocacy letter integrates knowledge of CHILDSPAN, Early Intervention, and Prevent Child Abuse RI and relates to advocacy goals. NAEYC Standard 5	3 Advocacy Letter fully integrates knowledge of CHILDSPAN, Early Intervention, and Prevent Child Abuse RI and relates all or most of them to the advocacy goals.	2-1 Advocacy letter integrates knowledge of CHILDSPAN, Early Intervention, and Prevent Child Abuse RI. At least two of them are related to the advocacy goals.	0 Advocacy letter integrates some knowledge of CHILDSPAN, Early Intervention, and/or Prevent Child Abuse RI. At least one of them is related to advocacy goals.
Form: 1.Paper is clearly written with all criteria included. 2.Paper is free from mechanical and grammatical errors. 3.Paper includes a cover sheet. 4.Two copies of the paper are provided.	2 Paper is well written. It includes all of the criteria and has fewer than 3 mechanical or grammatical errors. The cover sheet is provided along with two copies.	1 Paper includes most of the criteria and has no more than 5 mechanical or grammatical errors. Two copies are provided.	0 Paper is poorly written. It includes few of the criteria and has more than 5 mechanical or grammatical errors. No cover sheet and Two copies are not provided.